Have No Fear... We're Here

If you get lost or cannot find your competition site, have no fear, the Destination ImagiNation Inc. information staff is here!

The Destination ImagiNation information staff are now located inside The Knoxville Convention Center (KCC).

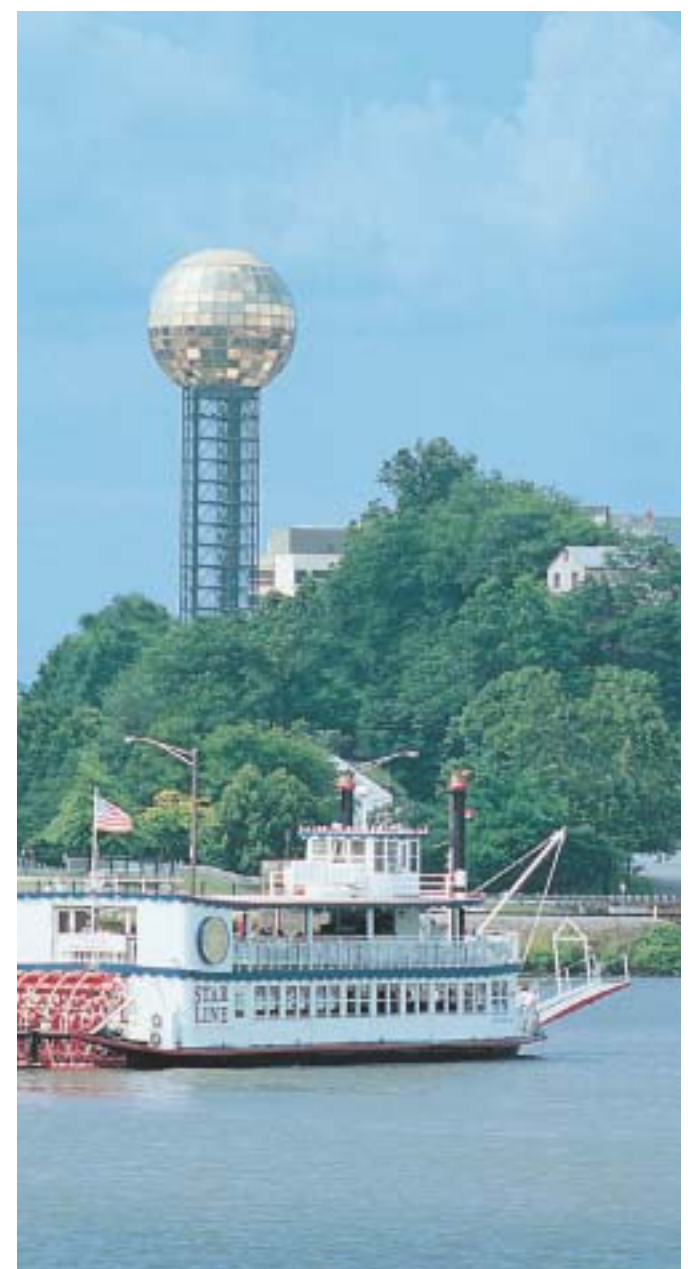

Beginning Wednesday at 10:00 a.m. information stations will be open to assist you around campus throughout the week, and on Thursday and Friday they will open at 8:00 a.m.

Other locations: Destination ImagiNation information staff will also make themselves available to event-related questions by roaming the various sites. Any participants who may be lost or have questions should feel free to address any of these helpful staff members. Also remember that daily competition schedules will be printed in the Daily News!

There is also a lost and found area at the information desk so if you have lost an item make sure your check with the helpful Destination ImagiNation information staff.

Identifying information staff: Along with a friendly smile, Global Finals information staff will be wearing bright orange t-shirts with d2k.4 written on the front of the shirt and "Ask Me About Destination ImagiNation" written on the back.

*If you need assistance and cannot locate a Destination ImagiNation information staff member, don't forget that there are several information tents and tables set up on campus and in downtown Knoxville. The University of Tennessee event staff members at those tents will be happy to help you.
